PLAYWORKER JOB DESCRIPTION

Purpose:

To contribute to the provision of a safe environment in which all the children attending a Family Group session can enjoy a stimulating and varied range of multi-cultural activities. To work with children individually or in groups to help them develop skills and interests. With the Playleader, to identify and respond to any specific needs of individual children.

Tasks:

To work closely with children, encouraging them to take part in new activities in which they are involved and to play with other children.

To provide sensitive support and encouragement to the children and their parents.

To work with the Playleader to ensure that children are properly supervised at all times both indoors and outside.

To contribute ideas and observations to the review and planning of children's activities.

To arrive in time to set up the session activities and to stay to clear up after the children have left.

To report to the Playleader any events or accidents which need to be recorded.

To attend training meetings organized by the Family Group Development Worker.

To attend training course as required and to keep up to date with ideas for play with the under fives.

To inform the Playleader as early as possible if unable to attend a session.
